Tim, 4.

The Sinatescath contury is departing. After it has taken a few mure steps, it each year be a view, it will be guese into the etermities. In a start time we shall be in the last docade of this century, which fact makes the wheamont beach catache the light the almanae, and the most supressive and the most treasunding place of machinery in all the earth the clock. The last decade of this century upon which we shall soon enter will be the greathest mightiest and most decisive densite in all the chromotogies. I am that it is not to came immediately, for we need by a new haptime of the Haly Churt to prepare for it. That hat ten years of the Simultonia commy, may we all five to see them? Does may one my that the division of time is arbitrary? Oh, nor in other ages the divisions of time may have been arbitrary, but one years duck from Chirist. Does may one say that the grouping of ten together is an arrangement different clarks.

RELIGIOUS READING.

THE BORDER-LAND (Written for aged mints) You are nearing the heavenly portals. As the seary days go by, Nearing the City of Refuge, Nearing the home on high.

Nearing the many manelous
Which the Saviou, has prepared
For the dear ones he has ransomed,
Who his life on earth have shared

Cling close to the ble-sed Jesus, As the mortal weaker grows, He will bear you safely over, Where the living water flows.

There no night shall east its shadow, There no tear shall dim the eye; There you'll rest, secure forever, With the Saviour always nigh. Is the journey long, my sister? Are you warry with the strife? Does your patience almost falter? Are you weary with this life?

You shall praise the Lord more leadly, You shall shout the glad refrain With a clear, sweeter music, In return for overy pain.

He doth sit as a refiner,
You have read of it off, I know,
He shall find the true, pure metal,
Though the process may seem slow.

May your falth and love grow stronger, And your hope as I anchor prove, Hobbing fast, and never wavering, Which no power shall over move.

And when the message coneth, Be it morn, or noon, or night, May you ready be and waiting. And like victor claim your right.

It shall be a crown of giory,
It shall be a new name, too,
It shall be a home with Jesus,
It is pledged for such as you. When you reach the blessed mansion,
When you group the Staviour's hand,
You'll forget the weary earth-life
While you rest in Beulah land,

"Up, and be doing," is the word that comes from God to each of us. Leave some good work behild you that shall not be wholly lost when you have passed away. Do samething worth living for, worth dying for, do something to show that you have a mind and a heart, and a soul within you. Is there no want, no unfiring, no sorrow, that you can relieve? Is there no act of tartly justice, no deed of cheerful kindness, no long-forgotten duty that you can perform? Is there no reconciliation of some ancient quarrel, no payment of some long outstanding debt, no couriesy, or love, or honor to those to whom it has long been due! If there be any such, I beseech you, in God's name, go and do it.—

SUNDAY TRAVELING.

After John Adams had returned to his Mass chusetts bone, from his presidential office, he was traveling by carriage toward his home, when Saturday evening overbook him, some ten miles away. He tarried with the clergyman of the village, who in the mering, assured him that he would be justified, if he desired, to drive to his home, as his family wore in sickness. But Adams in sisted that he would not be justified, as his example would be bod, and his explanation could not be given to the general public, and so he farried for rest and worship until Monday morning, when he resumed his journey. Half this Christian world would, we feen, laugh at this act as use of aspertition in the honorable expresident, but we see in it sweything to admire. Indeed it was one of the noblest acts that can stood to the credit of that honored name. Sanday traveling has become the custom of the sign even with Christian men. As a matter of pleasure, it cestainly should be discouraged and we are glad to know that the Anti-traveling Union of America, after a life of four years, has victor grow into 60,000 within the four years to come.—Hereit of Gospel Liberty. One of our leading editors clipped from a leading magazine extracts from a vivid description of a Western bilizzard which we have bales the liberty to publish, and at the same time suggest to H. H. Warner & Co., the proprietors of the celebrated Warner's Safe Cure, the feasibility of taking therefrom an extract for the introduction of one of their belling advertisements. The following is the description.

The Fakir and Faking. The verb "to faka" and its present

The verb "to fake" and its present participle "faking" are going into more general use day by day. The origin of the word is obvious enough, so that newspaper readers have not been treated to any exymological or historical disquisitions on this head as is the case with the expression "in the soup." It of course comes from a free use of the noun "fakir," who in his pristing impurity belongs to the distant and perfumed Orient, but who is now to be found, or at least United States reproductions of him are to "Yer years at procurs intervals in all sou, as "Yer years at procurs intervals in all sou, as "Yer years at procurs intervals in all sou, as "Yer years at procurs intervals in all sou, as "Yer years at procurs intervals in all sou, as "Yer years at procurs intervals in all sou, as "Yer years at procurs intervals in all sou, as "Yer years at procurs intervals in all sou, as "Yer years at procurs intervals in all sou, as "Yer years at procurs intervals in all sou, as "Yer years at procurs intervals in all sou, as "Yer years at procurs intervals in all sou, as "Yer years at procurs intervals in all sou, as "Yer years at procurs intervals in all sou, as "Yer years at procurs intervals in all sou, as "Yer years at procurs intervals in all sou, as "Yer years at procurs intervals in all sou, as "Yer years at procurs intervals in all sou, as "Yer years at procurs intervals in all sou, as "Yer years at procurs intervals in all sou, as "Yer years at procurs intervals in all sou, as "Yer years at procurs intervals in all sou, as "Yer years at procurs intervals in all sou, as "Yer years at procurs intervals in all sou, as "Yer years at procurs intervals in all sou, as "Yer years at procurs intervals in all sou, as "Yer years at procurs intervals in all sou, as "Yer years at procurs intervals in all sou, as "Yer years at procurs intervals in all sou, as "Yer years at procurs intervals in all sou, as "Yer years at procurs intervals in all sou, as "Yer years at procurs intervals in all sou, as "Yer years at procurs in year y United States reproductions of him are to be discovered, along Nassau street vendbear every evidence of having been manbear every evidence of having been man-ifactured in a hurry. CUPID'S HARNESS.

Most women naturally look forward to matrimony as their proper sphere in life, but they should constantly bear in mind that a fair, rosy face, bright eyes, and a healthy, well-developed form, are the best passports to a happy marriage. All those wasting disorders, weaknesses, and functional irregularities peculiar to their sex, destroy beauty and attractiveness and make life miserable. An unfailing specific for these maladies is to be found in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It is the only medicine for women, sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee from the manufacturers, that it will give satisfaction in every case, or money will be refunded. This guarantee has been printed on the bottle-wrappers, and faithfully carried out for many years. $1.00 per Bottle, or Six Bottles for $5.00.
